SOME PATRIOTIC SERVICE
Hon. James Templeton was in Wauseon one day this week for a few minutes; he was in a hurry to get back on the farm where he has 30 acres of ground ready for wheat. This season a "Jim" harvested 700 bushels of corn and has accomplished all this practically by his lonesome. He says he is going to stay right on the farm and keep grinding for the duration of the war, because he believes that is the place where he can help most.

PUBLIC SCHOOL EXTENSION

All regular school work and activities were running at full speed at the end of the first week. Although the school is not yet fully organized, the new teachers in both high school and grades the work was organized in less time and with less difficulty than usual. The high school enrollment is over 200 and several others will enter in a week or two. This large enrollment speaks well for the school and indicates that the community considers the education of our youth an essential war activity. This is most certainly is.

The sophomore class with 72 members claims the largest allegiance; the freshmen number 66; the junior class is smallest in number, enrolling 25, while the senior class hopes to have the largest graduating class that ever left Wauseon High, there being 41 candidates. The enrollment in the grades totals a few less than 500.

Last year the school authorities worked out a plan of credits for non-credit work for high school pupils. All high school pupils are encouraged and even required to engage in some work of a co-operative or community nature on the assumption that all good citizens engage in some kind of community activity. This year the scope of these credits will be somewhat extended. Educators have long recognized that some provision for religious instruction is imperatively needed but under existing laws the schools seemed unable to offer such instruction. Wauseon High School's plan of extension also offers a solution to the difficulty. The plan devised is a modification of one successfully used in Toledo. It is simply this. All pupils receiving systematic instruction in religion under a competent teacher in their own (or any) Sabbath school or church will be given credit for it on his or her school record. Pupils are also required to be present at 90 per cent of the class sessions. All churches and church schools are urged to organize their young people into classes for systematic instruction in religion so as to enable them to take advantage of this plan of credits.

It has been suggested that there might be some demand for evening school. In every community there are many people who would like to continue their education if the opportunity were offered. Courses offered need not be of the usual scholastic nature but might include commercial law, study of the causes of the war or other questions of current interest, bookkeeping, in short almost any subject for which there is sufficient demand. Notwithstanding the fact that the above course in teaching all to be done by regular school teachers. There are many citizens qualified to conduct courses along special lines and an effort would be made to secure their services.

Miss Guehman's "Teachergage" houses the following teachers: Misses Burford, Grimm, Smith, Keller and Stadler.

Miss Smith made a week end visit to her home in Tiffin.

Supt. Altstetter spent last Thursday at Montpelier judging the educational exhibit at the Williams County Fair.

BETRAYERS OF HUMANITY
The ancient hatreds and centuries years Judas has been regarded as the arch traitor of all history.

And just so. For he sacrificed what stood for the spirit of the nation of all nations to a rapacious band of murderers.

All for thirty pieces of silver. Today the material salvation of all mankind is directly at stake; the freedom, the liberty, the democracy of the world.

And for just a few more pieces of silver than Judas got, and these people, there are thousands of men and women in America ready to follow Judas footsteps.

Men and women who believe themselves worth while in the world. Who daily move among us guised in the linen and fine raiment of respectability.

The betrayers of humanity. Folks who conscientiously object to war or the support of war and are secreting their world store.

Folks who prate of peace when the Hun has set all the world aflame and would loot the ruins.

Folks who have enjoyed all the blessings of a free country, yet whenever they may be are lending aid to the Kaiser.

Folks who put a matter of two per cent in interest earnings above their gratitude to country.

Folks who sacrifice pleasure above patriotism, loyalty, loyalty, selflessness above sacrifice for the country's good.

Folks who refuse to buy Liberty Bonds.

With none to say "Father forgive them."

For they all know what they do.

MULE FOLLOWS
KANSAS CITY, Sept. 20.—To nearly every U. S. soldier in France "Folks" is just an ornery of Missouri mule. But this doesn't apply to Private Victor Irming of the Marines, formerly a farmer near Avondale, Mo.

Irming was looking in the sun near an old stone wall in the war zone during a rest hour. His near slumber was disturbed by the terrible bray emanating from a noisy specimen of his home state's livestock.

There could be no mistake. Irming hurried to the other side of the wall and there discovered old Toby to whom he had said good-bye back on the farm.

After Irming's enlistment an army mule buyer spied Toby and induced him into military service. The story of how the Marine and the mule discovered themselves both engaged in the business of beating the Hun was set forth in a letter from Irming to his relatives in Avondale.

MILITARY BOARD ITEMS
The clerical force of the Local Military Board has been increased by the addition of Private Howard Gehring, of Swanton, who has been detailed for service with this board until Jan. 1st, 1919.

The board is busy this week preparing the lists of the 2C49 men registered in Fulton county September 12th, by their Serial numbers and alphabetically. Questionnaires will be mailed out to men between the ages of 19 to 37 as soon as possible.

Joseph Weber left Thursday morning for the University of Toledo Army Auto School to begin his training as an auto mechanic. A call has come to induct 33 more men from Fulton county into the service. They will entrain for Camp Sherman during the period from October 7th to 11th.

GET YOUR BONDS
The Peoples State Bank request all persons who have not yet received their Liberty Loan Bonds of previous issue to call at the bank at once and get them, as they desire to have these bonds out of the way before the Fourth Liberty Loan Campaign opens.

TO RED CROSS CREDIT

Through the generosity of Mr. W. L. Biddle, Mrs. Jacob Hatt and Mr. M. J. Linehan, the enterprise and push of V. E. Harriman and the hearty co-operation and service of the Betsy Ross Girls and others, a credit of $26.62 has been placed in the War Chest Fund for Fulton Chapter, American Red Cross. Mr. Biddle gave a fine registered Holstein calf, Mrs. Hatt a lot in the city of Detroit and Mr. Linehan a lot in the village of Lyons. Ticket sale on these donations to the Red Cross Society in order to convert them into gauze, absorbent cotton, muslin, yarn and other material which this society can use for our soldiers, was managed by Mr. Harriman, who enlisted the services of young ladies and Red Cross workers all over the county, calling especially on the Betsy Ross Girls of Wauseon to aid in the ticket sale. Many young ladies in all the villages of the county have given splendid service and the result is that tickets to the value of $229.12 were sold; the expenses connected with the sale were $12.50 and the balance of $216.62 has been placed in the county War Chest to the credit of the Red Cross.

Awards of the donations were made at the Fulton County Fair on the last great day of the feast. The calf was awarded to Dale Blair; the Detroit lot to George McQuillin and the Lyons lot to Mrs. Frank S. Ham.

HIGH SCHOOL LECTURE COURSE
The Senior Class of '19 wishes to announce to the public that the lecture course for the coming season will be as follows: The opening lecture will be given on October 14th by Arthur Walwin Evans, a noted humorist Welch orator, who will speak on "What America Means to Me."

The second number will be on November 13th, given by the Tachoukowsky Quartet, everyone, an artist in musical ability.

The third attraction on January 10, "The Bertha Farmer Company, consists of a pianist, violinist, cellist, and Miss Farmer herself, a world not to be surpassed."

The fourth number on January 23, Margaret Stahl, interpreter reader, will present some of the foremost plays of the time. Miss Stahl has won wide fame and her name is coupled with the foremost interpreters readers of the time.

The closing number will be given on February 4th by Lincoln McConall in a very vivid and stirring up-to-date lecture entitled, "The Devil and the Kaiser."

We have every reason to believe that the above course will be one of the best that has ever been presented to the public.

DON'T SELL YOUR WAR SAVINGS STAMPS
It has come to my attention that some people are planning to cash in their War Savings Stamps in order to purchase Bonds of the Fourth Liberty Loan and I desire to protest against this.

The funds derived from the sale of War Savings Stamps is used to prosecute the war and is of the same value to the government as is the funds derived from the sale of Liberty Bonds.

It is not an act of patriotism for you to dispose of your War Savings Stamps at any time. The sale of Liberty Bonds should be purchased out of your future earnings, and paid for as far as possible on the dates set by the government.

Do not duplicate your efforts, each successive call for funds by the government is a new responsibility which cannot be discharged by the sale of the Bonds or Stamps previously purchased.

W. B. HARRIS,
County Chairman.

RALLY CALL FOR PATRIOTISM

"Faith without works is dead." So patriotic talk without performance of patriotic deeds is worse than dead. We all can talk patriotism and now the time is again here when we must back up our talk with deeds and show our faith by our works.

It is designed to make October 1st a memorable day for Wauseon. On that day our people of Wauseon will be designated to place and voluntarily make their subscription for the bonds of the Fourth Liberty Loan.

We are not doing our full measure of duty if we must be solicited and urged to purchase bonds. The performance of our duty should be voluntary and we are going to adopt the plan of asking our people to come to these designated places and make their subscriptions without solicitation.

Allotment cards will be used as were used in the previous bond sale and these cards will be at the place where we expect our people will go there and fill out their cards for the amount as nearly as possible indicated on the individual's card. The town has been divided into small districts and two solicitors assigned to each district. These solicitors will be at the place for taking subscriptions and one can immediately get his card to show that he has done his duty to the place it will be the duty of the solicitor for the district in which such person lives to call on that person for his subscription. We believe that one who wants it said that he had to be called upon and solicited to do his duty.

Now every one take a deep interest in this plan. Let's make it a howling success. If we do not it will surely reflect on the patriotism of Wauseon. Let everyone put his shoulder to the wheel, and think of, and do nothing else on Oct. 1st until he has done his duty to his country and to our brave boys on the fighting line of France. Discuss this plan; talk with everyone you meet about it, put pep in it and put it across. The committees in charge cannot make this a success without the help of everyone. We MUST have your co-operation. Will you give it?

Places for taking subscriptions will be announced next week.
